

Christmas Parties at Bath's Historic Buildings

Stunning and unique venues in the heart of a World Heritage City

Bath is fortunate to have so many beautiful historic rooms available to hire from which to choose. Below is a selection of options for a perfect Christmas celebration. For further information or to discuss these or any other venue hire options please contact us on 01225 477782.

Christmas Lunch

The Assembly Rooms

For a larger private lunch you could choose The Assembly Rooms. This is a stunning Grade I listed building, dating back to 1771. Enjoy your Christmas lunch in the unique Octagon, which can accommodate from 50 to 120 people. Alternatively you could have lunch in the beautiful Tea Room which can accommodate up to 170 people. Then finish your lunch in the card room enjoying mulled wine and mince pies – the card room is provided free of charge when used as a bar as part of your Christmas lunch booking.

Evening Drinks Receptions

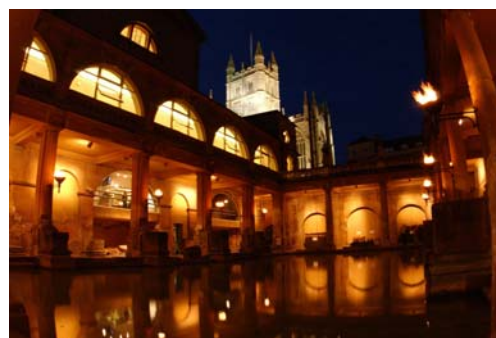

The Victoria Art Gallery

The Victoria Art Gallery is the public art gallery for Bath & North East Somerset with a particularly fine collection of art in its care. The venue has two very different galleries to choose from hosting up to 150 guests. This venue is suitable for a drinks and cold canapé receptions and is available for hire on Tuesdays to Saturdays from 6pm.

The Roman Baths

The Roman Baths is without doubt one of the most atmospheric and unique venues in the country. For an unforgettable evening, receptions can start at 7pm with guests enjoying drinks and canapés alongside the torch-lit and steaming waters.

Small Christmas Parties

The Terrace and Reception Hall

Overlooking the Great Bath the Terrace is ideal for an informal buffet for up to 120 or a seated dinner for up to 80 guests. You can then move into the adjoining Reception Hall which can be set up with a bar and is perfect for live music and dancing.
